

BECAUSE THE FIRST SIX YEARS ARE SO IMPORTANT...

The years before six have the most important influence of any time on a child's development.

Parents and caregivers are a child's best teacher! Playing and interacting with your children in their early years sets the stage for lifelong learning.

WELCOME TO THEIR EARLY YEARS...

Each day brings something new for you and your child to experience.

Come discover the Ontario Early Years Centre. It's a place where children newborn to six can learn through play, and where parents and caregivers can learn from early years staff and from one another.

WELCOME TO YOUR ONTARIO EARLY YEARS CENTRE BRUCE GREY OWEN SOUND

The Ontario Early Years Centre – Bruce-Grey-Owen Sound provides services for children aged six and under and their parents, grandparents and other caregivers.

Centres offer flexible hours, including evenings and weekends, and outreach programming to many local communities.

LEARN TOGETHER, GROW TOGETHER.... BE TOGETHER

Here's what you can expect when you spend time in an Ontario Early Years Centre:

- A warm, welcoming place to meet other parents, caregivers and children.
- Opportunities for your child to play and interact with other children
- Fun early learning, literacy and school readiness activities to do with your child
- New baby support and parenting workshops on a variety of topics
- Resources on pregnancy, parenting and child development
- Information and links to other programs and services in Bruce and Grey Counties
